

October 22, 1925.

Mr. John J. Collier,
1520 Spruce Avenue,
Philadelphia, Penn.

Dear John:

I take pleasure in inclosing you herewith a copy of my Sales Tax bill that was introduced at the last session of the Georgia State Senate. Our county is not yet ready for a Sales Tax, but it is a proper solution of a tax question.

I was in New York last week, but it seems that I was so pressed for time that I could not stop over in Philadelphia to know you personally.

With my usual sincere regards, I beg to remain,

Yours very truly,

J.C. Collier.

JCC/AB